

Mastery Retreat with Leah Hemming

Life in the Light

at the Mana Retreat Centre, Coromandel

Living in the light you come into awareness of your real self.
Connect with the masters who are waiting to lead you toward your inner light.

Creating space for gentle healing and transformation.
Your soul's expansion to create an authentic life – a beautiful life in each present moment.

The meaning and purpose of your life in the light - becoming a master.

In this weekend mastery retreat you will learn how to hold and remain in the light which is within and around you. Your soul recognises and responds to its gentle healing powers to help you come into deeper understanding of yourself and your life, so joy, clarity, love and inner peace are your experience. This is the time for healing and receiving in the soft waters of the light - for your heart, for your soul - for your unique life.

About Leah: Leah is based in Auckland and works directly with the master Mother Mary. Leah offers individual channeling sessions and healing therapies and she teaches meditation classes and conducts seminars.

In workshops Leah uses her gifts of clairvoyance and channelling with Mother Mary to teach you the way to let go of limitations and with this assistance you will find yourself discovering new dimensions within, which can help you change your life and that of others.

Testimonials:

“Leah’s professionalism is so amazing and inspiring and she has a deep knowing and genuine caring which she shares in such a wonderfully generous way. My heartfelt thanks for a very special week-end!

Annika Syle’u (Auckland)

“My expectations of the retreat were surpassed in all aspects. . I came away from the retreat knowing that in every sense the weekend had provided me with an abundance of new learning and insights. Thank you once again – and may the love of the universe flow through you all ways.” Richard (Auckland)
